Eight Stockbrokers Given 22 Years in Prison

Confronted, Nov. 13.—Sanctimonious and hypocritical stockbrokers by Sir Justice Joffe in the full session, on Monday afternoon, were sentenced to 22 years in prison.

William J. Smart (Homer Gibson Co., Ltd.), two and a half years.
 James Hargrave (Homer Gibson Co., Ltd.), two and a half years.
 W. T. H. Smart (H. R. Mayne Co., Ltd.), two and a half years.
 D. S. Patterson (D. S. Patterson Co., Ltd.), two and a half years.

Two other prominent stockbrokers who have found favour in Alberta and Ontario, are:

Harvey Mills, $500,000 in Ontario, $500,000 in U.S. and one month's imprisonment.
 The proceedings marked the close of the criminal week on various charges of conspiracy of members of the five large Toronto trading houses whose management was investigated by the two government last winter as a result of their stock exchange operations.

The trading houses' convictions have been entered, with the exception of two, in which the lawyers pleaded guilty.

HAND HILLS ECHOES

We are sorry to report that Mrs. L. S. Platt has been laid up as a patient at the Chas. H. H. Hospital, under the care of Dr. Hicks.

The annual turkey shoot and dance, held at the Hand Hill Club, on Friday, Nov. 15, was largely attended, and a most enjoyable time was spent by everyone.

Miss Marie McPherson spent the afternoon at the Hand Hill Club.

The traveling lady with her horse, and returned to Norma Ross in Calgary the beginning of last week.

Mrs. Lucie McDonald has been ill for some time, and we hope that she will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Van der Grinten of the Hand Hills, are being registered at Drumheller, on their way to the British Columbia coast.

Foxes For Germany

W. Allen Remanded

Calf Stealing Charge

W. J. Allen, of the Hand Hills district, was committed for trial Thursday by Magistrate O'Connor on the charge of theft of a calf, the property of another Hand Hills farmer, Robert T. Beck. The hearing commenced practically the entire day at about the complaint, Beck, proving a substantial witness. Sergeant Stirling handled the prosecution while Allen was defended by W. R. Sanderson.

The witnesses called were Robert T. Beck, owner of the stolen calf, and Allen, who was only way he would get paid. Allen was remanded for trial, after defense was made on behalf of Allen, and two more of two thousand dollars each.

Sentinel Hill Items

Thanksgiving day was not observed as a holiday by many of our residents, as this was the only day of the week. However, the spirit of Thanksgiving was not lacking, as many are truly thankful for the better of things than they have been. The children, of course, had their last day from school, for which they seemed thankful.

Many attended the Armistice service held in Delia on Sunday night.

On account of the Armistice service in Delia, Rev. G. A. Stiles was given the same service at this point.

Mr. G. H. Hewson has returned from Winnipeg, N. Dakota, where he was called by the news of the death of his brother, Rev. M. A. Hewson, who was a victim of a heart attack and died of suffocation in his garage.

Mr. N. G. G. of this community, was the U.G.W. delegate from the Delia local to the annual meeting held in Winnipeg last October.

The sewing demonstration was held in the annex of the United Church, commencing on Thursday, Nov. 20, is being attended by many of our ladies, who have to attend if the weather is favorable.
